The Honor Roll

1917 --- 1918 --- 1919

To the forty-eight from Fillmore County who gave their lives in the service of their country—those who died that free men might be made more free; those who saw visions of a new heaven and gave their lives to bring forth a new earth—to those heroes of the twentieth century crusade, this book is dedicated. It is to perpetuate the memory of these men and to do honor to those hundreds of others who offered their lives if they should be needed that this volume is placed in your hands.

Foreword

Americanism displayed by the people of this county during the war which this country has just come through. There is not a man, woman or child in the entire county who did not do more than his or her bit toward the great task set before this country, of assisting to down the enemy of the Allies.

The record of the glorious deeds performed by the valiant men of this county who offered their all to serve the country is one that will stand for all time. Giving up their homes and families and knowing that there was a big chance of never returning from the battle fields of France, these men freely gave themselves to the cause of humanity.

Not only did the men of Fillmore county serve in the combatant forces—on land, at sea or in the air—but they furnished from their number, men who, being unfit for military service, could only serve behind the lines in non-combatant sections of the army.

Not only the men of this county were in the great American fighting machine—there were the Nurses—women who freely volunteered their services to help in the fight against the greater enemy to armies at war than bullets—disease. These Nurses were called upon to perform duties at times far more arduous than fighting in the trenches. For days at a time, when the strain was almost unbearable, they were often called upon to nurse the wounded and gassed soldiers behind the lines, seeing sights that only the horrors of war can produce.

These men and women who were away from home, fighting that the ideals of Democracy might endure, deserve all the credit that can be given them. They, however, would have been powerless to do what they did without the help of the ones they left at home.

For every man that was in the service, it is estimated, there were twenty behind him—giving of their money and efforts—so that the fighters might have ammunition, food and clothing. These also deserve their share of credit for the armies would have been helpless without their generous backing.

Fillmore County had one of the most effective Red Cross organizations in the nation; the Liberty Loan organization, with the splendid co-operation of the people who bought bonds, brought the returns in the county for each loan way over the quota alloted. The county took more than its share of War Savings Stamps and oversubscribed in every drive for funds for war work and relief measures for stricken sufferers of Europe. Men of extensive business experience gave their entire time when needed to carry on the war work in the county. Moneyless people, who could scarcely make both ends meet because of the high war-time prices for necessities made their sacrifices to donate to relief funds and to purchase bonds of the government. Even the school children worked at various war activities and bought savings stamps and bonds so that they could be doing their bit to help the cause. On every hand tremendous sacrifices were being made that the work of carrying on the war might be made easier and the end of the conflict be brought nearer.

Too much praise can not be given the women of Fillmore County. The mothers of the valiant boys who went away with the colors—their boys—now grown-up men who were to shoulder arms and fight for them; their boys for whom they had sacrificed everything—they gave freely to the government, with a pride that can not be measured by words; and watched them through tear-dimmed eyes, when the train bore them away, perhaps never to return. This was the supreme sacrifice.

Women abondoned their household duties and knitted and sewed for the Red Cross. They worked with the men on various fund drives throughout the county; sewed for Belgian children; bought bonds and savings stamps; made innumerable sacrifices that they might do their share in carrying the tremendous burden imposed by the war.

Fillmore County is proud of her people. Her men, who fought face to face with death, on the battlefields of France, will be ever remembered, as will the other men who by the signing of the armistice on November 11, 1918, were deprived of the chance of fighting, although fully trained and ready to go.

Fillmore County is more than proud of the men who gave their lives, knowing that they did not do so in vain, but that their supreme sacrifice made that much nearer the dawn of a newer and brighter day, when the downtrodden peoples of the world should be free from the suppression of Autocracy.

It is to the brave soldiers of Fillmore County that this book is rightfully dedicated—to recounting the deeds of the men who served en masse and as individuals, and to printing their photographs in order that the soldiers themselves, their relatives and friends might have a permanent and accurate record of the deeds they performed. As a memorial to their work and that of the men who served at home, this book will grow priceless as the years go by, as the youths of this day grow aged, and the youth of another age peruse the record of the deeds done "over there," and the part that Fillmore County had in doing them.

In Memoriam

ROM Flanders Fields to fair Alsace—in Artois, in Champagne, in the Argonne and along the Meuse—lie Fillmore County's soldiers who gave their lives in the great world war that civilization and humanity and decency and honor might not perish from the earth. In graves within Fillmore County itself lie others whose service to the nation and to the world was cut short by deaths in the training camps which dotted the United States.

To forty-eight men—their sun eclipsed in the very morning—Fillmore County pays homage and does honor. These are they who saw visions of a new and freer day, and who went forth to battle in a modern day crusade. These are they who chose to risk all rather than subject us, their relatives and friends, to a ruthless domination and an endless oppression. These are they who laid down their own lives that we might live. And greater love than this has none.

The memory of the sacrifices of these men and their honored deeds will never cease. To honor these and to do its own little part in perpetuating reverence and insuring remembrance for these heroes of the day, this book, the annals of Fillmore County in the great war, is published. However eloquently it may be made to speak, it will still be insufficient to mark the honor due, for honor is a thing immortal and cannot be measured by mortal words.

And to the relatives of these, the fathers and mothers who gave their sons as the richest liberty loan, Fillmore County extends a heartfelt sympathy. It is a sympathy mingled with a higher respect and a clearer realization that each gold star will grow in intensity and brilliancy as the principles for which these heroes stood and died open a new age in the world, permitting us to enjoy what they only dreamed.

Work of the Red Cross

On April 26, 1917, forty-five women of Preston, Minn., met for the purpose of organizing a branch chapter of the American Red Cross of Minneapolis. During this meeting a letter was received from the Chicago headquarters of the Red Cross, which at this time had jurisdiction over the State of Minnesota, asking the people of Preston to organize a chapter with the county as its territory.

İ

At this meeting the secretary, Miss Laura Michener, made a canvass and secured the necessary names to form the Fillmore County chapter.

On May 1 the required formalities of organization, such as the sending of the required fee and membership statement to the Chicago headquarters, were completed.

The charter members called a meeting for May 5, 1917, to elect directors and officers.

The following directors were elected: S. A. Langum, E. B. Read, E. A. Highum, John Hopp, A. W. Thompson, E. T. Schoenbaum, T. I. Garratt, William Kuethe, F. J. Ibach, Mrs. J. Dunford, Mrs. H. Rollins, Mrs. George Harrington, Mrs. C. F. Lewis, Miss Ethel Becker, and Mrs. H. S. Bassett.

The following officers were elected: E. A. Highum, chairman; Mrs. H. S. Bassett, vice chairman; E. T. Schoenbaum, secretary; Laura Michener, assistant secretary; T. I. Garratt, treasurer.

The committees appointed were:

Membership: J. Dunford, A. D. Gray, Jr., Laura Michener, A. P. Nelson, and Esther Ott.

Supplies for branches in county: Mrs. E. B. Read and Mrs. H. S. Bassett.

Purchasing: Mrs. J. W. Broadwater and Mrs. R. E. Thompson.

Finance: S. A. Langum, E. B. Read, E. A. Highum, and E. T. Schoenbaum.

Entertainments: Mrs. John Hopp, chairman.

During May and June, 1917, the chairman, assisted by A. D. Gray, Sr., Mrs. E. B. Read, Rev. S. J. Wallace, John Hopp, and others, visited nearly all the villages and towns in the county where the work of organizing branches was begun.

The following branches were put into being: Spring Valley; Wykoff; Fountain; Lanesboro; Peterson; Pilot Mound; Arendahl; Granger; Mabel; Canton; Harmony.

Several of these branches organized auxiliaries to take care of the work in the farming and rural districts. The work in Rushford was carried on and the organization directed from the Winona county chapter of the Red Cross and did not come under the jurisdiction of the Fillmore County chapter. In Chatfield the work was done under the jurisdistion of the Olmstead County chapter.

The total membership of the Chapter, which includes the various branches and their auxiliaries, exceeded six thousand active workers, added to which was a Junior membership exceeding four thousand.

Shipment of all goods made by the Red Cross workers in the county and the handling of all the funds was made through the county chapter which retained headquarters at Preston, the county seat.

In addition to the regular work attached to the County Chapters routine, the Village of Preston was taken care of by the same committee and though at times the work piled up tremendously, the willing workers of Preston took care of it.

At various times in Preston, street fairs, auctions, sales of second hand articles and clothing, church socials and bees raised funds to carry on the work of humanity.

The total amount of money collected by the Red Cross from the town of Preston approximated $18,000. This does not include the value of articles that were donated at various times for the sales and benefits.

Though the expense of carrying on the work in Fillmore County was very high, a total of $30,000 dollars remained in the County chapter's treasury in a report made by the treasurer in August, 1919. All unfinished articles, not completed at the close of the war, when the work was slackened because of the decrease in demand, were finished and shipped.

Red Cross funds reported to the County Red Cross chapter at Preston following the big drive in the summer of 1918.

Since the time of this report an estimated figure of receipts amounting to several thousands of dollars had been added to the total reported below.

All receipts of the various branches of the Fillmore County chapter were handled by the central chapter at Preston.

Output

In no other branch of home activity during the war was the work carried on with such an untiring, ceaseless effort, as by the women of the Red Cross who patiently knitted and sewed at home that their men at the front and in the various camps might be made as comfortable as possible.

The report below is on the work finished and shipped from the Preston chapter and covers the complete work done in this county up to the end of the war. Since that time a large amount of work has been finished and shipped for use in the convalescent hospitals.

Report of the knitted goods, hospital garments and surgical dressings sent to head-quarters from the Fillmore County chapter shows:

Junior Red Cross

The Junior Red Cross chapter for Fillmore County was organized with Miss Merl Anderson, chairman; Mrs. A. P. Nelson, treasurer, and Miss Kathleen Meighen, secretary. Work of organization was carried on along the same lines as in the Red Cross chapter.

Miss Winifred Langum, Preston, went to Chicago in the fall of 1917 and completed both courses in the surgical dressings work and received an instructor's certificate. Returning to Preston Miss Langum was appointed chapter superintendent of surgical dressings and taught at the various classes in the Red Cross and Junior Red Cross which were engaged in the preparation of the surgical dressings and bandages for the army and Red Cross hospitals both at home and abroad.

Of the total membership of the Junior Red Cross in the county a large share were engaged at one time or another in the preparation of surgical dressings, and thousands upon thousands of various dressings were made up by them.

A large percentage of the Junior Red Cross work was handled through the schools and directly superintended by the teachers, who devoted a large part of their time during the school year and in the summer months.

The parents of the members of the Junior workers were heartily backing their work and were liberal in donations of both money and articles.

Spring Valley Branch

THE SPRING VALLEY branch of Fillmore County chapter of the American Red Cross was organized July 5, 1917, with a charter membership of 53. At a meeting July 17, the organization was perfected, and the temporary officers made permanent. At this time committees were appointed and plans outlined for the work.

The branch had its first meeting for work

July 23, at the Commercial club rooms, where, through the courtesy of the club, the sewing was carried on regularly on Tuesday and Friday afternoons throughout the war.

At the close of the first year's work a membership of 1,010 had been obtained, which included the seven auxiliary units-Washington, Zion-Hardscrabble, Buckwheat Ridge, Ostrander, Etna, Cherry Grove and Frankford. In addition to this there were twenty Junior Auxiliaries, thirteen of which were organized in the rural schools with 241 Junior Red Cross members. The remaining seven Junior Auxiliaries were in the Spring Valley schools, with a membership of 271.

Much credit is due the officers of the chapter for handling the work in such an efficient manner. Following are the officers of the Spring Valley branch who served throughout the war:

Mrs. A. L. Conklin, chairman; Mrs. W. D. Hart, vice-chairman; Mrs. O. Aamot, secretary; Mrs. W. N. Kendricks, treasurer; supervisors of Surgical Dressings classes, Misses Pearl Smith and Florence Wood.

The report of finances for the first year's work of the Spring Valley branch shows:

Since the time of making the above report almost four thousand dollars have been received by this organization.

There have been since organizing, 351 knitters, 4,330 skeins of yarn have been purchased, and the following list of articles have been completed: 927 pair socks, 430 sweaters, 140 mufflers, 93 pair of wristlets, and 9 helmets. Two hundred and eighty-three additional articles have been knitted since.

Much credit for this work is due to Miss Florence Viall, chairman of the knitting committee, who has had charge of this work from the beginning, and who has not missed a meeting of workers.

Nearly three thousand yards of outing flannel and four thousand yards of muslin were used in making hospital garments by the volunteer workers of the branch and

Articles of clothing and various articles for use in Red Cross hospital work were made totaling 2,661. In addition to these 138 comfort bags were made and filled, these being sent to the boys in service from the neighboring townships.

All cuttings left from the making of garments were used either for making quilts or for carpet rags which have been made into rugs and sold for Red Cross benefit. Much credit is due to the chairman of the cutting committee, Mrs. W. D. Hart and her predecessor, Mrs. Nettie J. Coleman, for efficient work in this department.

The classes in surgical dressings were organized in March with Miss Pearl Smith and Miss Florence Wood as instructors. These young ladies went to Northern Division Headquarters at St. Paul to take the course of instruction at their own expense and devoted their entire time to this work.

Two hundred workers were enrolled in the surgical dressings classes. Three thousand yards of gauze were used and made into nearly 22,000 dressings and bandages.

Chatfield Branch

The first steps taken towards the organization of the Chatfield chapter of the American Red Cross were made in the latter part of April, 1917.

The Women's Civic Club of Chatfield took up the matter and organized a tentative organization with ten divisions in the township to carry on the work of sewing and the making of gauze dressings. On May 25, 1917, a meeting was held at which Dr. W. A. Moore, president of the Commercial club, appointed a temporary organization committee of nine men and women.

At a subsequent meeting held June 14, 1917, the Chatfield Chapter of the American Red Cross was ratified, which included the city and township of Chatfield, also the townships of Jordan in Fillmore county, and Orion and Elmira in Olmsted county, Minnesota. The immediate organization of the chapter followed with the following officers election: Geo. R. Thompson, chairman; Medora O. F. Morrill, vice-chairman; E. J. Sutherland, secretary; G. A. Haven, treasurer.

These officers have served through the war period up to September, 1919, with the exception of G. R. Thompson, who requested to be relieved at a meeting Jan. 16, 1918. The chairman was succeeded by Wm. Laird, who was later succeeded by L. I. Loveland.

The following committees served during the war:

Red Cross drive: S. E. Bibbins, Dr. W. A.

By-laws: Dr. W. A. Moore.

Membership: F. L. Tesca; Civilian relief: E. J. Sutherland; Military relief: Mrs. Medora O. F. Morrill; Finance and auditing: S. E. Bibbins, E. F. Harnish, Joseph Underleak; Special knitting: Mrs. M. Burke; Home service: C. W. Doud; Junior Red Cross: Miss Lillian Avery; Service Flag: Mrs. M. O. F. Morrill, Mrs. F. G. Barnard; Nurses Survey: Mrs. John Chermak; Inspection of boxes: Miss Ruth Haven.

In Fillmore County the following school districts were designated and engaged in the Red Cross work and also the Junior work: Dist. 82, Miss Nell Whalan; 83-100, Mrs. Fred Norton; 84, Mrs. Ole Sundet; 85, Mrs. M. Johnson; 87, 121, 122, Mrs. John Cravath; 98, Mrs. J. Oakey; 128, Miss Frances Kadlec; 147, Miss Lulu Butler; 176, Mrs. G. W. Bailey; 179, Mrs. Dallas Arnold; 117, 119, Mrs. N. McConnell.

Under the direction of the above women there were enrolled in Chatfield, 275 women and the above rural districts, 225 women workers.

The Chatfield chapter made an enviable record in surgical dressings work during the war. When 18,786 separate bandages and gauze dressings were made, packed and shipped during a year and a half it means the women worked long, hard hours with the only recompense of knowing they were doing their share to alleviate the horrors of war and suffering.

During this period also an additional number of 31,645 hospital and refugee garments and supplies were shipped. In addition the Junior chapter made 100 scrap books for Belgian children. In the drive for old clothing for refugee relief up to April 1, 1919, 37,000 pounds of second hand garments were collected and shipped to headquarters.

Two drives for funds were made here during the war. The first drive in 1917 netting $2,529.25 and the second drive in 1918 totaling $4,514.87.

In addition to the above there is a record of miscellaneous contributions of $3,631.17.

On July 1, 1919, the chapter had a total of 951 members and the Junior a total membership of 600.

The following financial report of the Chatfield chapter is from May 1, 1917, to July 1, 1919:

Received from membership dues, $1,702; entertainments, donations, and sale of material, $7,955,35.

Paid for relief and supplies, $8,031.65.

Paid for stationery, postage, express and freight, $185.59.

In the process of the war work a total of thirty women and of two men were awarded service badges for hours of service. The least number of hours entitling a member to a service badge being 400 working hours. The highest number of hours awarded among the members of this chapter were put in by Mrs. M. O. F. Morrill, who is credited with a total of 3,200 hours' work.

As in the other chapters and branches of the Red Cross, the work was carried on without the additional expense of rent, fuel, light, drayage, or salaries. The local merchants donated the packing material and the school authorities packed the second hand goods shipped.

Harmony Chapter

The Harmony chapter of the American Red Cross of Fillmore County was organized July 24, 1917, at Harmony, Minn.

Over sixty charter members attended the first meeting and plans were outlined for the carrying on of the work in this section of the county.

Officers elected at this meeting were: H. Grooteboer, chairman; Mrs. Guy seonnelly, vice-chairman; Viola Hellickson, Dcretary; Dora Daniels, treasurer.

The various committees appointed were Membership, Mrs. McGee, Mrs. C. B. Hellickson, Mrs. Ray, Mrs. Frogner, Crystal Munger, and Myrtle Wolsted. Finance, Dora Daniels, Mrs. Ray, and Mrs. C. B. Hellickson. Social, Mrs. Guy Donnelly, Mrs. Joel Wolsted, and Mrs. Julius Johnson.

Later auxiliaries were formed at Bristol, in charge of Mrs. Levi Jones, and Mrs. John Roberts. At York, under direction of Mrs. J. H. Dahly. Big Spring, in charge of Miss Ada Trende. South West Harmony, under Mrs. A. O. Morram. State Line, which was partly in Iowa. Willow Creek, in charge of Mrs. Theodore Applen.

One of the first campaigns to raise money to carry on the work centered on a so-called Street Fair held in Harmony, Sept. 8, 1917, at which time their total receipts amounted to $389.75.

The success of this fair was due to all the members working together and when they realized what could be done toward raising money by this means, on June 14, 1918, a second street fair and auction was held at Harmony. The amount raised at this time was $5,924.38. The success of this auction was largely due to the efforts of John Thacher and Lyman Boice, both from Harmony and J. W. Terbeest, Spring Valley, who offered their services as auctioneers gratis.

At various times new members were gained for the Harmony branch. Before the drive for members October 22, 1918, the membership totalled 360. Nearly 200 new members were gained in this drive.

H. Grooteboer, chairman and Mrs. Guy Donnelly, resigned shortly after this time and Joel Wolstad and Mrs. Riseland were elected to fill the vacancies of office.

The surgical dressings class was composed mainly of school children in the various districts but the main work of filling the ever growing demands of the army for clothing and hospital needs were met by the women workers of the organization.

A total of 4,107 articles were made and shipped by this chapter during the war. The largest number of these was knitted socks, of which there were 1,630 pairs knitted from yarn furnished by the chapter. Five hundred and sixty bed shirts and the same number of pajamas were made and shipped. The other articles made were of every variety for use by the men in the trenches and in the hospitals. Some articles also were made for use by the French Relief workers in France.

The total receipts of the Harmony chapter up to August 15, 1919, were $11,371.79. The total expense of the chapter being $7,409.00.

Harmony Junior Branch

THE HARMONY branch of the Fillmore County Junior Red Cross was organized shortly after the Red Cross chapter was organized here, July 24, 1917.

The work was carried out under the direction of Mr. Higbee, superintendent of schools, Harmony, who was chairman of the Junior branch of the Red Cross for this section of the county.

The real burden of the work of organizing and carrying out the work planned was ably handled by Miss Alice Hanson, vice-chairman, who was assisted in her work by the Misses Ella Sanderson, Florence Ray, Emma Thundahl, and Prunella Trystad.

Work was carried on in an organized manner by the students in the various school districts in this section.

A splendid total of 49,573 surgical dressings and bandages were finished and shipped by this chapter. In every case when a demand would come in from headquarters for a certain kind of bandage or compress the order would be immediately filled without hurry or confusion.

The following list shows the money raised by the various auxiliaries of the Junior Red Cross in the Harmony branch to swell the General Red Cross Fund. Raised by the Harmony High School, $175.48; Henrytown school, $7.50; Daisey Valley, $2.50; District No. 39, $29.25; District No. 41, $31; District No. 44, $47.15.

Various little school plays and entertainments, in addition to donations were the source of the funds raised by the school children.

Lanesboro Branch

Canton Branch

N JUNE 20, 1917, the Canton branch of the American Red Cross was organized through the efforts of Mr. E. A. Highum and Mrs. E. B. Read. At the first meeting called by them there were fifty members present, and the following officers were elected:

President—Wm. Reed Vice-president—Mrs. Joe Armstrong Secretary—Miss Florence Mitson Treasurer—F. A. Masters

Rooms for the chapter were donated by Mr. Mitson. Tables were procured from the Alter Society and each member brought a chair. Fuel and light were also donated.

Work was begun immediately after organization and by Sept. 1 a large consignment of finished garments was sent to division head-quarters.

In October, 1917, Dr. O. A. Kibbe was elected president. The other officers remained the same until 1919 when Mrs. F. A. Masters was elected vice-president to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Armstrong. The membership steadily increased and on January 1, 1918, was four hundred and fifty.

Canton can claim one of the oldest knitters in the Northern Division. Mrs. George Hudson, a woman in her ninety-second year knit forty-nine pair of socks. Two other knitters can also be chosen from those who worked so faithfully. Mrs. T. Webster at the age of eighty-two knit forty-five pair of socks. Mrs. E. Wickett, aged eighty-one has seventy pair to her credit. In all the record of the knitting department was 540 pair of socks, 145 sweaters, and 40 miscellaneous articles.

A total of 2,907 articles were made by the workers of the hospital supply department.

When the call came in the fall of 1918 for help in the fire stricken districts the Chapter sent eight boxes of new and partly worn clothing and a lump sum of $500. The Armenian relief fund for the chapter was $250.

The work of earning money for the purchase of supplies was one of great importance, and was taken care of by the young people of Lenora, Prosper, and Canton. They gave a series of district school entertainments which netted quite a sum. August 5, 1917, was Tag Day which netted $82. An auction sale in October, 1917, brought in $90.00. During the spring of 1918 a series of chair parties gave $159.00 to the cause. During Fair Week the same year a number of young ladies gave a carnival, earning $170.00. The big money earning event of the period came on August 15, 1918, when a large auction sale was given which netted $3,307.47. In addition to the money earned there were many donations from individuals.

Total receipts up to Aug. 1, 1919...$6,489.40 Expenditures up to Aug. 1, 1919... 3,682.62

Balance on hand.....$2,806.78

The school enrolled each year in the Junior Red Cross. The children sent money and clothing to aid the fire sufferers. The girls also did knitting and sewing for the chapter.

charge of various drives for membership and funds were composed of the following men: Andrew Agrimson, Joseph Johnson, E. I. Torgerson, Jens Gilbertson, G. A. Haugen and Adolph Ostren.

At the time of the re-organization work was well under way and a large amount of material had been used in the making up of gar-

During the first year of the work in the Arendahl township the total receipts amounted to $435.87. The expenditures were $179.-71, leaving a balance on hand of $256.16 to begin on the second year's work.

Almost double this amount was raised for FILLMORE COUNTY showed its patriotism by the purchase of more than five million dollars of Liberty Bonds—more than three-quarters of a million above the amount asked of them.

The ready response of Fillmore County loyalists was more than generous. Over the goal in every one of the five drives is the mark they raised. And they went over from forty thousand to more than two hundred thousand dollars. More than 6,000 persons helped contribute to the county's share.

These figures give the total amounts credited to Fillmore County on each campaign:

No special drive was made for the first Loan. The full amount of the loan was apportioned among the various banks in the county and was taken up by them or by their depositors. No special effort was necessary as the amounts apportioned each bank were so small in relation to the amounts of the following loans that the loan was taken up before it was issued.

Not until the second loan was much done in preparation for an organized handling of the subscription work. At this time, however, the county was subdivided into seven districts, supervised by district chairmen, appointed by the county chairman, Lyle Hamlin of Spring Valley.

Committees for the various townships and villages in the county were formed, solicitors and helpers chosen, and plans laid for a permanent Liberty

HONOR ROLL

The Third Liberty Loan drive took place April 6 to May 4, 1918. Again the county "went over the top," by subscribing $125,700 over the allotment for the county.

County Allotment	$1,100,000
Actually subscribed	1,228,700
Number of Subscribers	5,768
Number of Farmer Subscribers	3,746
Number of City Subscribers	2,022
Number of Women Subscribers	772

Amount of City Subscriptions	415,000
Amount subscribed by Women	415,000

Reports show a total of twenty-three per cent of the population of Fillmore County subscribed to the Third Loan.

No detailed reports on the Fourth Liberty Loan were available at the time of going to press.

Below is the complete report of the drive, taking the county as a whole.

Amount allotted to Fillmore County$1,396	0,000
Amount actually subscribed in county$1,516	5,300
Total number of subscribers in county	5,272
Percentage of subscribers	25%

The Fourth Loan drive was made between Sept. 28 and Oct. 19, 1918. In this loan the county was given its highest allotment and here it made its highest record of over-subscription. Again, a new idea was worked out in the selling of the bonds. Instead of personal calls being made by solicitors the public was told by newspaper advertising of the new method. There was stationed in every voting booth or place in the county a committee during the first day of the drive. Every resident had been notified by mail of the time and place of buying and the amount of bonds allotted to him.

The response to this system of selling was magnificent and the county was almost over the top at the end of the first day of selling.

In the last or Victory Loan the same sort of procedure as used in the Fourth Loan, was adopted, the results being equally successful and even though the armistice had been signed Fillmore County passed its allotment on the first day of the sale by buyers who bought their bonds over the counter.

The sale opened up April 21, 1919, and continued to May 10, 1919. In this Loan a record of 100 per cent was established by this county by standing back of the government and meeting the government's request for loans after the war was practically over, with a generosity which was unprecedented in the annals of the county.

THIS COMPANY was organized in May, 1918, under the supervision of Captain W. R. Buchda, who has served for twelve years in the Wisconsin National Guard and for six months on the Mexican border.

Uniforms were obtained as soon as the company was recognized by the Minnesota state authorities and regular drills were conducted. At various times the ranks were partially depleted by the draft calls but new members were obtained in an effort to keep the organization up to full strength.

The training received by those men who were in the draft or enlisted into the regular service was of great benefit to them when in regular service and several of them obtained positions as noncommissioned officers as a result of it.

When the Armistice was signed no further need of the organization was felt and it was disbanded a short time later.

THE RESERVE OF THE PROPERTY OF

Preston Home Guard

The Preston, Minn., Home Guard Company was organized in July, 1918, with the intention of becoming part of the state organization of Home Guards as authorized by a special war time measure passed shortly before this by the legislature.

The company was recognized when recruiting had filled the quota and was assigned as Company G of the 7th Battalion, Minnesota Home Guards.

The work was greatly handicapped as blanks and forms used in the administration of such units were delayed in reaching the company until it was in the grip of the influenza epidemic. Rifles were obtained, as well as uniforms for the men. Regular drill was engaged in, but, due to the spread of the epidemic, the work could not be carried on with a full quota of men at all times.

Considerable training was given the members in military tactics and drill. This was made possible by the earnest effort of the men in the company and the painstaking work of the men in command of the men.

When the Armistice was signed, Nov. 11, 1918, the organization was deemed no longer necessary and the company was mustered out. At the time the personnel of Company G consisted of seventy-six men and three officers.

Chatfield Home Guard

Chatfield had the honor of being the home of a Home Guard company first authorized as state militia in July, 1917.

The unit was designated Company D, 5th Batallion, Minnesota Home Guards, by the state authorities.

The company was quickly raised, having an enlisted personnel of sixty men. Ably handled by Captain Cyril Delaney and Lieutenants Joseph Underleak and L. M. Thurber, the men rounded out into a well drilled and disciplined company, capable of efficient work.

Loss of a large number of men at various times by their entry into the Federal service hampered the work of the company as it made necessary the training of new men to fill the vacancies.

At no time was it necessary to call upon the company for active duty to quell riots or disturbances. At the close of the war the company was disbanded there being no further necessity for the organization.

Spring Valley Home Guard

THE HOME GUARDS in spring Valley, Minn., was organized in the latter part of June, 1918. The company was shortly afterwards recognized by the state authorities and assigned as Company E of the 7th Battalion, Minnesota Home Guards.

For a long time after the United States entered the war, people in rural communities did not fully realize what was about to take place. Large numbers of people had never seen a military organization and knew nothing of the principles and discipline which go along with it.

The various Home Guard units not only helped to bring about a feeling of loyalty and patriotism but it also served as a means of giving the rudimentary principles of military science to men who were about to enter the army.

A large number of men in Company E were later in the service of their country and found their Home Guard training of benefit to them in securing advancement.

The Spring Valley company of Home Guards was not called upon to quell any disturbance or rioting. Most of their efforts were put forth in helping to raise money for the Red Cross and other forms of war work.

Enough money was saved out of the general fund raised for the company to enable them to tender the returning soldiers of Spring Valley a large public welcoming reception.

The company was mustered out of service shortly after the signing of the Armistice.

Services of the band were donated in all the various Liberty Loan, Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Savings Stamps and Home Service drives. Concerts were given in the various towns in other counties to aid in raising funds to carry on the work of the various organizations.

Though toward the end of the war, the band had lost thirteen members by their entry into the service, new players were added. When the men returned from service they were assigned their old places in the band.

Lanesboro Band

LTHOUGH lacking in uniforms the Lanesboro band was not lacking in patriotic spirit. From the entry of the United States in the war until the last man had come back the band donated its services to every occasion where patriotism was needed. A large number of the original members were lost to the band by reason of their entry into the service but their places were quickly filled by volunteer players.

The members of the Lanesboro band were: S. L. Fosse, Conductor; A. M. Hanson, George Gulbrandson, N. C. Risjord, Harley Anderson, Dr. J. F. Thompson, A. M. Christensen, Tillman Gillund, O. O. Vickermann, Frank Fraser.

STARTING WITH a mere handful of musicians early in 1917 and ending up with a trained band of thirty pieces in the summer of 1918, is the record of the Preston band.

By a general subscription a fund was raised to buy instruments and the services of Guy C. Donnelly of Harmony, Minn., were obtained to train the musicians in the use of the various pieces. On every occasion when draft men left from Preston for the various camps, the band was called upon to furnish music for the parade of the boys to the train. At various times during the war the band also volunteered their services to play for the Red Cross and other war societies in the various drives for members and funds throughout the county.

The climax of the band's career came on the morning of the signing of the Armistice. The band was out in force not even stopping to don their uniforms and they played for several hours amid the glad rejoicing.

Fillmore County Draft Board

Dr. G. W. Love E. K. Blexrud Joseph Dunford H. A. Larson

THE DRAFT BOARD, or commonly called Exemption Board, whose duty it was to hear the claims of those to be drawn from the list of eligibles in the registration under the Selective Service law was named by President Wilson, on recommendation of Governor J. A. A. Burnquist of Minnesota. In practically every case throughout the country this board was composed of the country sheriff, country auditor and country physician. This was the case in Fillmore Country. The members of the board who held offices at Preston were: E. K. Blexrud, Joseph Dunford, and Dr. G. A. Love. Attorney H. A. Larson, Preston, also served on the board as legal advisor.

Under the selective service law all men between the ages of 21 and 30 were required to register for military service. Later the ages, under a revision of the law, included men from 18 to that of 45.

As the county was called upon from time to time to furnish quotas of men for the National Army, the draft board passed on the case of each man. They were given the authority to state whether a man was entitled to exemption on any ground. Each registrant was called before the board and his particular case decided upon.

Upon these men fell the duty of administrating the selective service law for raising the county's share of an army of millions of men. They were the men whose careful judgment and fairness brought about the willing acceptance of this plan for raising the fighting forces needed by the government.

Fillmore County sent into service from its men registered under the draft approximately eight hundred men. In addition to this number, about three hundred men who were classed as transients were sent from Preston with draft quotas but credited to other counties. On the registration list Fillmore County had a total of 7,000 men listed for military service.

At various times between draft calls many men enlisted through the draft from the county. Several of the men who were refused as unfit for military service temporarily and later enlisted were included in this number.

Legal Advisory Board

2. R. E. THOMPSON

3. A. D. Gray

NDER the Selective Service law enacted in May, 1917, men from the ages of 21 to 30 were called upon to register in their respective districts. The first registration was June 5, 1917. From this time until the close of the war, when the age limits of registrants had been raised to include men between the ages of 18 and 45, more than seven thousand men had registered under the draft law.

Each case had to be handled differently as hundreds of legal questions arose involving each plea for exemption. It was the duty of the legal advisory board to assist the registrants in filling out the various registration blanks required of them.

At various times of call when the county was called upon to furnish men, the selection of this quota entailed many hours of painstaking effort on the part of the members of the committee.

Too much credit can not be given these men for their loyal and patriotic efforts given so unselfishly to the government.

Four Minute Men

A T THE TIME when the Nation faced its most critical period, the Four Minute Men were originated and rapidly developed into a strong factor to keep up the morale of America.

It began in Chicago in March, 1917, when a group of young business men, headed by Donald M. Ryerson, at the suggestion of Senator Medill McCormick, formed themselves into a patriotic committee for the purpose of presenting to the people of Chicago the vital and urgent reasons for new military service requirements as proposed in the Chamberlin bill at that time.

The title of Four Minute Men was chosen from the Minute Men of the Revolution and the limit of time allotted for speakers, who were to present their subjects at Moving Picture theatres during intermissions. The Moving Picture audiences were determined upon as offering the broadest field to be reached in the shortest space of time. Mr. Ryerson, as president of the new organization, made the first four minute speech at the Strand theatre, Chicago, April 2, 1917.

The purpose of the Four Minute Men was to assist the various departments of the government in the work of National Defense during the continuance of the war by the provision of a national organization of volunteer speakers, and to present to Moving Picture theatre audiences four minute direct messages on subjects of vital national importance prepared under the authority and direction of the proper Government office. All topics were of national importance connected with the war plans of the government and were assigned by the department at Washington. Complete and accurate information on the subject to be discussed was furnished each speaker, who was expected, however, to preserve his individuality and forcefulness of expression and develop the subject along the lines best suited to his own personality. The speeches were therefore a combination of individual and official.

A summary of the service accomplished by the Four Minute Men indicates an approximate of a million speeches heard by four hundred million individuals during eighteen months of the organization. In addition to the above, the singing sections led community singing in thousands of the theatres during the Fourth Liberty Loan and subsequently, one report from a single section recording that 125,000,450 people participated in the singing during a nineteen day campaign for the Fourth Liberty Loan.

The total amount expended from government appropriations in behalf of the Four Minute Men approximated $100,000.

Food Administration

N JUNE 19, 1917, A. W. Thompson, Preston, was drafted for the position of Federal Food Administrator for Fillmore County. He was summoned by the Food Administrator of Minnesota to St. Paul where the powers and duties of the position were thoroughly considered. On his return Mr. Thompson established an office and organized the work which is part of the war history of this county. And for almost a year, until April 16, 1918, he gave his time exclusively to this work.

Every township had an associate food administrator and in every ward in the towns there were sub-committeemen. The Food Administrators served without compensation and were given ample powers to perform their excellent work.

At the time of the resignation of Mr. Thompson, on April 18, 1918, due to his enforced absence from the county, his successor, M. V. Facey of Preston, took up the duties.

While the results were largely brought about by the appeals to the patriotism of the people, there were some coercive measures, such as the sugar card for individual consumers, and sugar certificates for wholesalers, retailers and hotels. Among the outstanding features in the county were a series of mass meetings, addressed by food administration speakers, to create a proper understanding of America's position in this war and the vital importance of food conservation, the continued propaganda by thousands of personal letters, the tons of circulars reaching the homes of the people and modifications of nation-wide regulations to meet local conditions.

By reason of the sugar certificate system from July 1 to Dec. 1, 1918, 775,000 tons of sugar were saved in the United States. Fillmore County did its full share.

Another great saving to the nation's resources was made by the regulation enforcing the use of grain substitutes on a fifty per cent basis when white flour was used.

Newspaper Publishers of Fillmore County

IN THE RECORD of those achievements toward winning the war carried out by the home folks, no page is more glorious than that which holds the account of what the newspapers did.

Fillmore County newspapers, each day and each week, carried the news of the war to their eager readers and with it words of encouragement and confidence, ever and anon rising into clarion calls to the duty of putting across the various war aid drives and the hundred and one relief measures that America pushed.

Fillmore County newspapers enlisted early in the service of their country. Even before the declaration of war they were showing that spirit of service that later rose to sacrifice. No call was ever made upon them that went unsatisfied. Volunteers among them were found everywhere that a printing press ground out its weekly quota. Every newspaper editor and owner was a soldier of that mighty army fighting against disloyalty, shirking and indifference at home. Roused by the newspapers and held steadfastly by their frequent pleas in the cause of World freedom, Fillmore County wrote into the record a brilliant story of victorious events.

No other institution gave of their stock in trade as the newspapers gave to patriotic causes. With their power to sway public opinion they were lavish in the measure with which they poured it out in support of every governmental function. When the Red Cross called for helpers or needed money it was the newspapers which took up the cause and told the world. Day by day and week by week they helped where there were government tasks to be carried out and patriotic enterprises to foster.

When the people were asked to subscribe billions to Liberty Loans the newspapers with publicity unrivalled in history, put it across with an oversubscription of millions. When the United War Work drive opened the newspapers carried it through. They boosted Smileage books, told Aliens of new registration laws, made Thrift Stamps popular forms of small savings, heartened home folks with letters from the front, cheered boys in turn by news from the "old Home Town," spread food restrictions broadcast, scotched disloyalists, encouraged food and fuel saving, encouraged enlistment, solicited aid for Belgian babies and French orphans, spread information on the draft, boosted war gardens and pushed other calls for aid in the myriad activities that helped to win the war.

The press of Fillmore County gave of its all without stint where it could serve the common cause.

United War Work Campaign

THE UNITED WAR WORK CAMPAIGN in Fillmore County like the other of the World War drives was carried on successfully. State Senator John W. Hopp of Preston was the County Chairman. W. S. Sylvester of Preston was secretary of the county committee and also chairman of the publicity work and the public meetings to boost the drive and help put it over to a victorious conclusion. Thomas J. Meighen of Preston was treasurer for the county fund.

A meeting of all county chairmen, secretaries and publicity chairmen as well as district chairmen for the drive was called at Winona, and representative men from all the counties in the First Congressional District were present.

This meeting was in charge of the state committee for the United War Work Campaign. It was a wonderful meeting; wonderful in the enthusiasm created, wonderful in the patriotic purpose inspired by these loyal leaders.

From Fillmore County were John W. Hopp, Dr. Carlos Selvig of Harmony and William S. Sylvester of Preston. A banquet was served at the Winona Hotel and a mass meeting followed in the Winona Armory. An overseas speaker, representing the Y. M. C. A., who had just returned from the stirring scenes of Chateau Thierry, was present and thrilled all with his word pictures of the courage, heroism and sacrifices shown by our brave soldier boys who fought in that momentous battle. A War Service Male Quartet sang.

The county's leaders for this drive returned from the Winona meeting determined to put this drive over. John Hopp called a meeting at Preston and district chairmen and committee men from practically every township in Fillmore County were present. At this meeting, held in the court house, the publicity matter was distributed and a plan for the drive was adopted.

The following were appointed at this meeting as District chairmen:

C. H. Smith, Spring Valley; John W. Hopp, Preston; C. C. Jensen, Rushford; R. J. Stroud, Mabel, for Newburg and Preble; J. A. Fife, Canton, township and village; Dr. Carlos Selvig, Harmony, Bristol and York; Orva S. Knudsen for the villages of Lanesboro, Whalan, and for Carrolton, Holt and Amherst townships. William Manahan, Chatfield, and Jordan and Chatfield townships; Edward Langan of Wykoff, Fillmore township.

The above committee men were ably assisted by a loyal, hustling group of farmers and townsmen who went to work with a will and from all parts of the county there was a quick response in the interest of the drive. The slogan of the drive was "Back Up Our Boys Over There," and Fillmore County again proved its willingness and ability to help win the war by making good this slogan.

Advantage was taken of the presence of a returned Canadian soldier, Sergeant Maitland, who was two years in the thick of the fighting and had been gassed and wounded.

W. S. Sylvester arranged for meetings at several points in the county for this man. The meetings were not held indoors owing to the fact that influenza epidemic was spreading and in some towns meetings in public halls was prohibited by the health authorities. At Mabel, a great meeting was held in the Main Street and Sergeant Maitland spoke from a truck.

Fillmore County led many counties in the state and the first district led the entire state in reaching the quota. More than $50,000 was raised and sent to Thomas Meighen who handled the funds and sent them to the state committee.

Farm Labor Bureau

IN THE SPRING of 1918 when the government asked the farmers for a maximum production there was organized in Fillmore County a Farm Labor Bureau.

This bureau was an extension of the Agricultural Department of the government to come into immediate contact with the farmer. It was not the object of this bureau to tell the farmers what to raise, but to help them with their farm problems.

The man who was put in charge of the work in Fillmore County was William Dietrich, County Agent, of Preston, Minn. Mr. Dietrich and his associates did much to assist the farmer, the farmer's wife, and the farmer's children to take a greater interest in their homes, in their products, and in their social conditions.

Under a plan evolved by Mr. Dietrich a voluntary registration of the clerks and employers in the towns and villages took place. These men signified their willingness to work two days a week in times of extreme labor shortage on the farms at the low rate of wages of thirty cents an hour and board.

The following men were appointed by Mr. Dietrich as local executives of the County Farm Labor Bureau for their respective communities:

Prosper—G. Jorgenson
Highland—Jacob Jenson
Canton—J. A. Masters
Whalan—A. I. Swenson
Rushford—J. G. Roberton
Peterson—O. S. Retrum
Preston—County Agent Dietrich
Ostrander—A. M. Richardson
Spring Valley—J. W. Barber

Lanesboro—Charles E. Gillin Wykoff—F. J. Paul Bratsberg—Gerhard Byholt Mabel—Fred W. Bacon Chatfield—Earl Springer & G. Haven Cherry Grove—John Skavel Harmony—Julius Johnson Fountain—P. M. Schmelzer

Fuel Administration

INNEAPOLIS was headquarters for the Minnesota Fuel Administration. The office of the state administrator was a busy place, handling a mass of detail and recording information that was essential to the regulation of fuel prices. The most effective work, however, was done by the personal appearance of the Fuel Administrator in Washington, where he safeguarded the coal supply for the state for two winters.

At one time all the coal that trains could carry for ten days, to the exclusion of shipments elsewhere, was hurried to Lake ports for Minnesota and adjoining Northwest states. This was done on the appeal of the fuel administrators of the two Dakotas and Minnesota, and the action of the Federal Fuel Director, H. A. Garfield. It saved the Northwest from a coal famine, because these ten days were the last days before the close of Lake traffic.

The administration of the state office was concerned first in preventing profiteering, and in restricting sales of coal to consumers to a stipulated percentage of profit.

Mr. M. V. Facey, Preston, was appointed Fillmore County Fuel Administrator and was charged with the duty of receiving reports required from the local dealers.

The township and village administrators serving throughout the county were the same men who acted as local food administrators, the work being done in connection with that of controlling the food supply as used and to enforce regulations.

Fillmore County Schools

THE FILLMORE COUNTY Teacher's Patriotic League was organized at the 1917 Teachers' Institute at Spring Valley. The league was fortunate in having as its president Mrs. Fanny Kelly, whose entire life has been devoted to the rural school work of Fillmore County.

Mrs. Kelly organized the patriotic work under the heads of health, citizenship and activities. The first, and most vital, was the health department of which Miss Edna Densmore of Spring Valley was chairman. Through her untiring efforts and the co-operation of the physicians of the county, a health survey was made of all schools in the county. When the work of making the survey was complete and the reports had been made out, a detailed report on prevailing conditions was made by Rev. Souders of Preston, who lent valuable aid to the publicity work of the health campaign.

The citizenship department encouraged the organization of a Little Citizens League. Little Citizens were the 6,190 school children of the county. The motive of organization of these clubs was two-fold in nature. First through the organization and management of the clubs, the children were trained in the ideals of Americanism. Second, through the project work they were led to appreciate the value of agriculture and home work. The selection and management of these projects was left to the domestic science and agriculture teachers of the central schools.

During the trying days of the war, food conservation periods were observed. The children were instructed in the various methods of conservation and were encouraged in the raising of vegetables and farm animals. Through the efforts of this department the Fair association at Preston, furnished space at the fair for exhibits of the children's work and offered premiums for the children's section.

In the work of the activities department, Mrs. Kelly was ably assisted by the superintendents, teachers and other school personnel. Junior Red Cross work was organized in all the schools under the direction of Miss Merle Anderson of Preston who was appointed County chairman. Each child was helped to know that he was doing his bit toward paying his debt to the government.

Another very important part of the activities work was under the direct supervision of Superintendent L. C. McCarty, as chairman of the Fillmore County War Savings Stamps committee. Each child was encouraged to invest in a government bond of some kind, thereby starting out on the path of thrift. Children's thrift clubs were organized in the various schools of the county which further encouraged the children in the learning of thrift.

These clubs and the meetings of the Little Citizens clubs were devoted to programs which were selected from various topics on Public Information and on Thrift as selected by Superintendent Oscar Olson. A. W. Thompson, Preston, Public Safety Commissioner, also lent his assistance to the work of education of the children in patriotic matters.

All this patriotic work of the schools was done in connection with the regular school work and the value of the results in the patriotic education of the coming generation is untold.

The schools of the county were not slow to grasp their opportunity for rendering service to their country and prove their loyalty to the Schoolmaster President, Mr. Wilson.

-Contributed by Miss Cora Bigelow, County Superintendent of Schools.

American Library Association

IN THE FALL of 1917 the government placed the responsibility of organizing libraries, maintaining and equipping the same for the use and enjoyment of America's soldiers, in the hands of the American Library Association.

The aim of the association was to place in the hands of the soldiers good reading material which would at all times be readily accessible in the various camps, cantonments and training stations in the States and also abroad in the various hospitals, rest camps, and prison camps. In fact everywhere America's soldiers were, the Library association followed them up with books, newspapers and magazines.

The committee in charge of this work asked for $1,000,000 and the same number of books. Fillmore County's apportionment was $250 and 250 books.

Acting under the able management of Mrs. E. B. Read, Preston, who was chairman of the Fillmore County Branch of the American Library Association, the work was carried on with a success much greater than planned and as a result of the first drive $506 and 612 books were collected and turned over to the national association for use of the soldiers.

Y. M. C. A.

THE Y. M. C. A. drive in Fillmore County was made Nov. 11 to 19, 1917. It was directed by a committee composed of the following: James G. Roberton, Rushford; Orva S. Knudsen, Lanesboro; G. A. Haven, Chatfield; C. H. Smith, Spring Valley; Dr. M. D. Ogg, Wykoff; Dr. Carlos Selvig, Harmony; J. A. Fife, Canton; R. J. Stroud, Mabel; and John W. Hopp, of Preston, who was chairman of the committee.

In each township and district the members of the committee were ably assisted by many volunteer solicitors and by their combined efforts secured approximately $15,000 for this great work.

The first district of Minnesota, consisting of eight counties in southeastern Minnesota, was allotted a quota to raise of $100,000 and of this quota, Fillmore County's share was fourteen thousand dollars.

The fact that there had been no Y. M. C. A. work done prior to this time in Fillmore County, made the results of this drive the more wonderful as the people themselves had not come into actual contact with the work and knew very little about the Y. M. C. A. except that which they had heard or read in the newspapers and magazines.

Since the first Y. M. C. A. drive, at various times donations have been made by various societies and workers which has greatly raised the Y's receipts to enable them to carry on the work of making the soldiers, both at home and abroad, a cleaner and happier collection of men.

Local organization work of the Y. M. C. A. was not begun until the summer of 1919 at which time F. W. Leggitt was appointed secretary of Fillmore County Y. M. C. A. activities.

Pilot Mound Township Honor Roll

Just to show in a detailed manner the wonderful response of the Fillmore County people to the call of their country in the time of its most dire need the following honor roll is given.

To make a detailed report, such as this, of the entire county is naturally an impossibility. For this reason one township was taken at random. This is not an extraordinary example but simply goes to show what was done over the entire county. The wonderful sacrifices of the people, made with an unselfishness of spirit which is truly typical of the American citizen, have served to make a record which will stand for all time, as a true example of the spirit of patriotism.

Here is the record of Pilot Mound Township during the war:

The township of Pilot Mound never failed to raise its quota and went over the top in each and every drive made for funds to aid the government in its work to down the Hun.

For going over the top in the Third Liberty Loan drive the township was awarded a Flag from the U. S. Treasury department and again in the Fourth Loan. In the Last Loan the township was awarded a German Helmet for going over its quota.

Following is an individual record of the workers in the township who were actively engaged in war work:

THE GREAT WORLD WAR

AN ILLUSTRATED REVIEW

HEN the World War ended on November 11th, 1918, the armed forces of 25 nations of the globe had been hurling their armics against each other for more than four years in the most colossal struggle of history. After a conflict without parallel, it ended in its 52d month with a casualty total nearing the ten million mark.

Set off by the murder of an ordinary Austrian archduke on June 28th, 1914, by a Serbian political fanatic, the conflagration which had threatened the peace of Europe for decades was thus destined to embroil the leading powers of the world in the most costly and bloody strife known to man.

After a month's diplomatic argument over the affair, Austria formally opened hostilities with her declaration of war on Serbia. General mobilization followed quickly in Russia; a "state of war" was almost immediately declared in Germany. Then on August 1st Germany declared war on Russia, following this with an ultimatum to Belgium demanding that her troops be given free passage across that country. On August 3d, the Teutons included France on their list of enemies. This was followed next day by an ultimatum to Germany from Great Britain demanding that the neutrality of Belgium be respected. When this assurance was not granted by Emperor Wilhelm, Great Britain declared war on Germany. A quick succession of war declarations finally involved the greater share of Europe by the end of the summer.

Mad with the ruthless spirit of conquest the Central Powers marched their armies off to war in grand fashion, boasting that they would return by Christmas time, the conquerers of Europe. Their amazing preparations for the dream of world power almost brought within their grasp the greedy ambition of the Junkers.

The initial successes of the German army in its advance through Belgium and on toward Paris astounded the world. England and France reeled and staggered before the terrific onslaught of the famous Prussian Guards and the other crack armies of the Central Powers. Swept off her feet almost by the spectacular aggression of the enemy, the fate of France virtually hung from a thread as the invaders triumphantly swept on and on.

Early in September, when they were practically within reach of Paris, the tide was turned against them in the battle of the Marne, September 6-10. French themselves attribute their good fortune at this point to the hand of the Almighty rather than to their superior military strength at the time. This marked the enemy's point of farthest advance.

The atrocities of the advancing Huns during the months of their early triumphs and conquest have been called infamous by conservative journalists and correspondents. Suffice to say, their bloodthirsty ambition to rule and conquer the world knew no bounds, and that their acts and deeds of disgrace will forever remain one of the darkest of the many blotches brought on the German people during the European war.

Believing that the United States had no part to play in the war at that time, President Woodrow Wilson, on August 4th, 1914, officially proclaimed the neutrality of the United States. The war was thus confined to Europe for many months, a struggle mainly between the two great European Alliances—the Triple Alliance composing Germany, Austria Hungary and Italy, against the Triple Entente, composing England, Russia and France. Italy, originally a member of the Triple Alliance, but later one of the chief powers of the Allies, did not enter the war until 1915. She then declared war on all of Germany's Allies, but did not break with Germany herself until late in 1916. Before the war she was a member of the Triple Alliance with Germany and Austria but severed this connection to fight with the Allies.

After the marvelous advances of the first year, the great battle line in Europe remained practically stationary for nearly three years and extended over more than 300 miles. The large armies of each force fought doggedly, suffered heroically and died willingly, in a mighty death-grip whose battles surpassed the most famous of previous wars for loss of life and destruction of property.

The superb Armies of the Russians in the Eastern theater kept the attention of a large German force occupied and away from the Western Front. This fact aided the Allies tremendously and probably prevented a German Peace in the second and third years of the War.

It was while France, England and Italy were staggering before the last big offensive of the enemy early in 1918 that America's force was thrown into the balance in substantial numbers.

Her declaration of war against Germany on April 6th, 1917, grew out of the Central Powers' failure to recognize the rights of neutrals on the high seas. Repeatedly the rights of the United States were violated, and just as repeatedly Germany refused to discontinue her ruthless program of submarine warfare against the world. The sinking of the Lusitania on May 7th, 1915, without warning and with the loss of 1154 lives, 114 of whom were Americans, was regarded by a great many as just cause for a declaration of war against Germany. The President and Congress believing differently, failed to act, and it was not until more sinkings of women and children that the United States decided to step into the breach herself.

AN ILLUSTRATED REVIEW

Regarded as a mere "bluff" by her adversaries, the United States' entrance apparently failed to cause undue anxiety in Berlin. With an unprepared democracy for another enemy in which a great many were believed to have been opposed to war, Germany had little cause for worry, she declared.

But America went to work. The act produced an electrical effect on her people and almost instantly united her various factions, creeds, parties, and nationalities for one purpose—to crush Germany and her Allies. She became a workshop, with no hours, in her determination to end the European fight victoriously, and thus save democracy for the world. Every effort was bended to the cause, every penny of wealth was eagerly held ready for the call, and every atom of energy was expended in her feverish haste to redeem mankind.

Ĭ

Her sons by the hundreds of thousands rushed to the colors, as their fathers did in the wars of their day, to see another victory added to the flag which had never known defeat. That the distribution of soldiers throughout the land might be as nearly equitable as possible, Congress passed the Selective Service Act in May, 1918, the greatest mobilization machinery developed by any of the 25 nations at war.

Naturally there were obstacles and delays. A nation's task in rising up over night to send a formidable force three thousand miles overseas to fight for world freedom is not the kind that can be accomplished without some disorder and delay. But loyalty and union did it, and on June 26th, 1917, only two months after the declaration of war, the first American doughboy landed on French soil. On November 3d, 1917, the Yanks had their first clash with the Germans. On January 31st, 1918, a report reached America that American infantrymen were occupying first line trenches for the first time.

Austrian Artillerymen and Mechanics Assembling a Giant 30.5 Cm. Siege Gun for the Second Bombardment of Przemysl, June, 1915.

By this time the United States had declared a 'state of war existing with Austria Hungary, Germany's chief ally, and had swung her domestic machinery into the greatest war machine conceivable. She had begun to raise by popular bond subscriptions billions of dollars to supply guns and munitions, and food and clothes, for the boys who were going over to France to do the job.

Four Liberty Loans were floated during the war, and the total subscriptions to these amounted to between eighteen and nineteen billions of dollars. This amount was taken by more than 50 million subscribers, and was to be only an insignificant factor in the financing of the war, according to the Treasury Department. This cost when compared with the total cost of the Civil War for four years—approximately $4,000,000,000—is proof enough that the World War was not comparable with any previous war in history. In April, 1919, following the armistice, another Fifth or Victory Loan of approximately the same dimensions as the Fourth, was floated. The wonderfully prompt and generous response of the nation to each of the calls of the Liberty Loans was one of the greatest sources of inspiration for the men in uniform who had gone to fight for those at home. The same patriotic generosity that marked the success of the Liberty Loan was evident in each of the scores of war work drives that were conducted for the various relief and welfare organizations.

Food conservation—conservation of man-power, the work or fight order, the noble, work of the women who sewed and knitted night and day for the Red Cross and the boys, the curtailment of profits and the simple economy was practiced by rich and poor alike, were but a few of the many war time measures that characterized the life of America's hundred and some million during the year and a half during which she was at war. No history of that war will ever have room for a just story of the part played by the loyal home folks—those who waited and prayed, and worked and gave, to keep the home fires burning.

Foremost among the initial problems of America, after preliminary plans for the raising of her army had been laid, was the problem of transporting them to France, so that their strength might be thrown against the Hun on the battlefield. Shipping was not available, and even though it was being increased at maximum capacity, still there was not more than half as much as was needed to transport the men in the numbers they were being trained and in the numbers they were needed by France and England and Italy.

England gladly placed her available shipping at the disposal of the United States, and before the war had ended she had carried more than one million Yanks to the side of her own men and those of the Freneh, or nearly half of those who had gone overseas. The importance of the United States Navy in the war can hardly be exaggerated. Within less than a month after hostilities were declared, she had sent a detachment of destroyers to European waters. By October, 1918, there were 338 ships of all classes flying the American flag in foreign waters. The operations of the Navy during the war covered the widest scope in its history. They operated in European waters from the Mediterranean to the White Sea. At Corfu, Gibraltar, in the Bay of Biseay, on the Irish Coast, at the English Channel ports, in the North Sea and at Archangel, they did creditable work. This service was not as brilliant perhaps as that of the army, because the nature of its vital work kept it from the front. Even though its activities were probably less glorious, still they were none the less important and necessary to the cause.

Naval men served on nearly 2000 eraft that plied the waters of the globe, on submarines that had no fear of the under-sea perils, and in aviation where men of eourage fought and prevented surprise attacks with new-found weapons.

In diplomaey, in investigation at home and in all parts of the world by naval officers and eivilian agents, in protecting industry from enemy spies, in promoting new industries and enlarging older ones to meet war-time needs—these are a few of the accomplishments that are outstanding in the part played by the Navy in winning the war.

Shortly after the declaration of war, the submarine problem had become so acute and the merchant ship losses so great, it became necessary to adopt more effective methods in dealing with the problem and making shipping safer. The system of convoy was adopted at the suggestion of President Wilson. This, although it slowed up shipping by fully twenty percent, enabled a comparatively safe passage of troops and was probably the greatest stroke of the Navy during the war.

During all the time the United States was engaged in the war the enemy's naval forces, with the exception of the submarines, were blockaded in his ports. This, of course, prevented naval engagements of a major character. The destroyers, submarine chasers and patrol vessels, however, waged an unceasing offensive against the submarine menace to shipping and troop convoy, and only three vessels were sunk. These were the Antilles, the President Lincoln and the Covington. Each was struck on her return voyage, so that the loss of life was comparatively small. Only three fighting vessels were lost as the result of enemy action—a patrol ship, a torpedo boat destroyer and a cruiser. The other transports and destroyers struck by the enemy during the war reached port without loss of life. Other Transports carrying United States soldiers went down but these were being convoyed by the British Admiralty. Chief among these was the Tuscania, sunk off the Coast of Ireland February 5th, 1918, with a loss of 110 lives.

The most serious loss of life in the navy as a result of its war-time activity resulted when 111 officers and men of the Coast Guard cutter Tampa perished when their vessel was sunk in Bristol Channel, England, in September, 1918. The Tampa had been doing escort duty in the transport service. It had gone ahead of the convoy and was sunk soon after leaving the party.

With its record of phenomenal transport service in protecting troops and shipping against the enemy submarine offensive; its splendid co-operation with the British Fleet in keeping the German navy in port and Germany herself blockaded; its stellar work with the giant 14 inch long range guns at the front; and its subsequent spectacular feat in first bridging the Atlantic by air, the United States Navy had a share in the World War which although as previously stated is seldom characterized as brilliantly as that of the Army and Marines, still was equally important and essential in keeping the war wheels turning victoriously.

The story of the activities of America's two million doughboys and marines in France is one which should be told in volumes rather than in paragraphs. From the time of their first clash with the Germans on November 3d, 1917, until they "let go" the last unwelcome guests against Fritz's lines early November 11th, 1918—their deeds are a succession of courageous and brilliant performances of duty.

"When I think of their heroism, their patience under hardships, and their unflinching spirit of offensive action, I am filled with emotion which I am unable to express," General

John J. Pershing declared in commending the officers and soldiers of the line of the American Army. "Their deeds are immortal, and they have earned the eternal gratitude of our country."

This simple tribute to the brave American lads who fought and died in France is indicative of America's reverence for her heroic armies. Their glory and fame will always live by the side of the deeds of their forbears in previous wars.

In May, 1917, shortly after war was declared, General Pershing, well-known for his punitive expedition into Mexico, was selected by the War Department to command the American Expeditionary Forces that were to go to France. After gathering about him a small staff the General set sail. His reception in both England and France was only equalled by the readiness of the commanders of both armies to co-operate with the United States in the prosecution of the war, according to the General's own report.

His general staff was organized in a short time and detailed plans worked out for the organization and training of the millions of American soldiers who were expected in France to help finish the Hun. Training areas, designed to give the final seasoning to fresh troops arriving from the States before their entry into the front lines, and officers schools for the various arms of the service were established.

Extensive construction provided vast warehouses, supply depots, munition store-houses, and the like for the huge task ahead. Although France offered much in the way of both ordnance and quartermaster property for use by the American Army, still enormous quantities of materials of all kinds had to be brought across the Atlantic.

Flocking into the Army from civil life were thousands of professional and business men with splendid talent along the lines needed to build up this immense service of supply that was to keep the A. E. F. in action. To meet the shortage of supplies due to lack of shipping, representatives of the various supply departments were constantly in search of supplies and materials in Europe. A general purchasing agency was provided, in order to better co-ordinate the purchasing and to prevent competition between departments of the army. So successful was this system in the American Army that it was almost universally adopted by the armies of the Allies before the war had ended.

"Our entry into the war found us with few of the auxiliaries necessary for its conduct in the modern sense," General Pershing declared in his official report. "Among our most importent deficiencies in material were artillery, aviation and tanks. In order to meet our requirements as quickly as possible we accepted the offer of the French Government to provide us from their own factories with the necessary artillery equipment for thirty divisions. In aviation we were in the same situation and here again the French Government came to our aid until we were able to get our own air service program The necessary planes to train the air service personnel were provided and we secured from the French a total of 2676 pursuit, bombing and observation planes. The first planes to arrive from America came in May, 1918, and a total of 1379 were received during the war. The first American squadron completely equipped by American production, including airplanes, crossed the German lines on August 7th, 1918. For tanks we also were compelled to rely upon the French. We were less fortunate here, however, for the reason that the French were scarcely able to meet their own production requirements in this respect. It should be remembered by every American that the French Government always took a most liberal attitute in endeavoring to supply the shortages existing in the American Army."

Speaking of the soldiers in Europe General Pershing outlines with words of praisc the work done by the various welfare organizations and of the responsive attitude found among the soldiers by these organizations.

"The welfare of the troops touches my responsibility as Commander-in-Chief to the mothers and fathers and kindred of the men who went to France in the impressionable period of youth. They could not have the privilege accorded the soldiers of Europe during their leaves of visiting their relatives and renewing their home ties. Fully realizing that the standard of conduct that should be established for them must have a permanent influence on their lives and the character of their future citizenship, the Red Cross, the Young Men's Christian Association, the Knights of Columbus, the Salvation Army and the Jewish Welfare Board, as auxiliaries in this work, were encouraged in every manner possible. The fact that our soldiers, in a land of different customs and language, have borne themselves in a manner in keeping with the cause for which they fought, is due not only to the efforts in their behalf, but much more to other high ideals, their discipline, and their innate sense of self-respect. It should be recorded, however, that the members of these welfare societies have been untiring in their desire to be of real service to our officers and men. The patriotic devotion of these representative men and women has given a new significance to the Golden Rule, and we owe to them a debt of gratitude that can never be entirely repaid."

The First Division of the American Army, after finishing its preliminary training behind the lines, went to the trenches for the first time in October, 1917, as the first contribution to the fighting forces of the Allies. By the time that the great German offensive in Picardy began, on March 21st, 1918, the American army had four experienced divisions in the line. The great crisis that this drive developed, however, made it impossible for the Americans to take over a sector by themselves. Gradually, as their numbers increased and more reserves, fresh from the States, were placed in training behind the lines, the American boys went in in substantial numbers. Already they had displayed their splendid fighting qualities and had demonstrated that as soldiers they had no superiors. Incidentally, it did not take them long to convince the enemy that contrary to their own opinions, they themselves were not invincible.

On August 30th, 1918, the American forces took over the first American sector, in preparation for the St. Mihiel offensive. The American line was soon extended across the Meuse River to the west edge of the Argonne Forest. The concentration of tanks, aviation units, artillery equipment, and materials of all kinds for this first great American offensive was enormous. The scores of elements of a complete army were moulded together, with American railroad and American service of supply units throughout. The concentration included the bringing up of approximately 600,000 troops. The French Independent Air Force, together with British bombing units and American Air forces, placed the greatest aviation personnel that ever took part in any Western Front offensive under the direct command of General Pershing.

On the day after they had taken the St. Mihiel Salient a great share of the corps and army artillery that had operated in that offensive were on the move toward the area back of the line between the Meuse River and the western edge of the Argonne. The German General Staff was well aware of the consequences of an American success along this line, and it was determined to use every available American division in an effort to force a decision at this point. The attack began on September 26th. The work of the American army and of the American engineers in this drive will forever remain in the memory of generations to comc. Forcing their way through the densely wooded and shell torn areas, their fight was one of the most brilliant battles of the war. The offensive was maintained until October 4th in the face of innumerable wooded patches of snipers and concealed machine gunners.

Fresh troops with little experience were thrown in with their seasoned comrades, who had become veterans over night with this most crucial battle as their teacher. The second phase began with a renewed attack all along the front on October 4th. More positions were taken with a precision and speed that always characterized the Yank army. Their dogged offensive was wearing down the enemy, who, continuing desperately by throwing his best troops against them, was helpless before the spectacular advance.

At this juncture two divisions were dispatched to Belgium to help the French army near Ypres. On October 23d, the last phase of the Meuse-Argonne offensive began. Violent counter attacks by the enemy lost him heavily, while a regrouping of the American force was going on for the final drive. Plain evidences of loss of morale in the enemy forces gave our men added courage and spirit, and finally, using comparatively fresh divisions, the last advance was begun on November 1st. It was apparent at this time that the end was near for the Boche. Our increased artillery support did remarkable work in supporting the infantry, which by its dashing advance of the several weeks preceding had destroyed the Hun's will to resist.

Between September 26th and November 6th they had taken 26,059 prisoners and 468 guns on this front.

The divisions engaged in this, the most important of America's battles in the European war, were the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th, 26th, 28th, 29th, 32d, 33d, 35th, 37th, 42d, 77th, 78th, 79th, 80th, 82d, 89th, 90th and 91st. Many of these divisions remained in line for a length of time that required nerves of steel while still others were put back in the line after only a few days of rest.

When the armistice was signed following a complete routing of the enemy by Americans in the Argonne Forest there were in France, according to General Pershing, approximately 2,053,347 troops, less the casualties. Of this total there were 1,338,169 combatant troops. Up to November 18th the losses were: Killed and wounded, 36,145; died of disease, 14,811; deaths unclassified, 2,204; wounded 179,625; prisoners, 2,163; missing in action 1,160. As against this casualty total, the American forces captured about 44,000 prisoners and 1,400 guns, howitzers and trench mortars.

In this short summary of the principal activities of the United States' part in the great war it is obviously impossible to more than skim over the various features of the great war machinery. The heroism and gallantry of the boys who fought and died over there; the unceasing devotion and courage of the parents and citizens at home who stood by them so unselfishly; and the determination of everyone, young and old, to unite for the common cause, setting aside their personal desires and interests, was responsible for the glorious victory in which America was so conspicuously instrumental in bringing about. Outstripping a hundredfold the dimensions of any previous war of the United

Graves of Marines Who Died "In Flanders Fields."

States, the task accomplished was a revelation to all when viewed in retrospect. The accomplishments of the Liberty Loans, the devotion of the millions of mothers and sisters in behalf of the Red Cross, the wonderful response of the country to the operation of the Selective Service Act in raising an army of millions—the sacrifices of all, at home and abroad, were universal during the year and a half at which America was at war.

Loyalty and love of country were terms with new meanings. Sedition was lurking only here and there, and this was promptly done away with through the efficient secret service department and popular opinion. The four million American boys who were under arms, many of them at the front and the remainder eager for the chance to jump in, convinced the world that the fighting blood that gave birth to their nation had not been diluted through the riotous living of a century. The brave lads who gave their lives and are now buried over there went to their fate with hearts full of joy, and in a manner that gave courage to the veterans of four years who fought beside them. And their brave mothers in the States who waited in vain for peace to bring their sons back to them, made the greatest sacrifices within their power with a courage and willingness that was unequalled even by the Spartans themselves.

When the history of the great European struggle is permanently written, there will be no more brilliant chapters than those telling of the part played by the United States of America in stamping out militaristic autocracy from the world.
